

Christmas for non-Christians?

Some people say that only Christians should be allowed time off work and school at Christmas.

Others disagree, saying that anyone should be allowed to celebrate it and have time off.

Abdul

*"I agree with those who think non-Christians should not celebrate it, because I don't think just anyone should be allowed to celebrate Eid ul-Adha (the Islamic holiday) and because I don't celebrate Christmas."

"There are families where not everyone is of the same faith; some are Christians and others have different faiths or none. It would not be fair to split these families apart during Christmas by giving only some of them time-off."

Miriam

A. What is Abdul's position? (Choose one)	D. What do you think is Miriam's position? (Choose one)
<input type="checkbox"/> That non-Christians should not be allowed to celebrate Christmas <input type="checkbox"/> That Muslims should be allowed to celebrate Eid ul-Adha <input type="checkbox"/> That he does not celebrate Christmas	<input type="checkbox"/> That Christmas should only be for Christians. <input type="checkbox"/> That Christmas should be for anyone.
B. What information does Abdul use to support his position?	E. What information does Miriam use to support her position?
C. Explain why Abdul might think this information supports his position?	F. Explain why Miriam might think this information supports her position?
G. Whose argument is better? Why is their argument better?	